

BIND & FINISH

- Whether your project is a sprint or a marathon, a strong finish is Dolan Printing's promise to you.

We offer complete bindery and finishing services, including collating, cutting, folding, laminating, perforating and shrink wrapping. We work with you to determine the binding that adds the most value and ease-of-use for your book, manual, or direct mail. We offer a complete range, from stapling to spiral to saddle stitch. Perfect binding is a great choice for larger projects and a long-lasting, durable outcome.

We have invested in new technology to individualize short runs with high-end finishes such as foil, embossing, debossing and laser cutting. At Dolan Printing, we finish every job on a high note.
